Freeway Buying To Start In Sept.

Almost 200 persons attended the freeway meeting Friday night which was sponsored by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce to hear State Highway Department officials tell of the means and methods they would employ to acquire property along the freeway route.

The meeting, in three sections, was moderated by Max Goodwin, publisher of the REVIEW. The large turnout heard each of four state highway representatives tell of their department's part in the development. Then there was a question and answer period and finally a longer period where the entire audience was invited to examine the maps and ask questions about specific pieces of property. Attending the meeting were E. E. Wallace, State Highway Department engineer, Ralph Luckenbach, assistant engineer, Jack Putzer, head appraiser, and John Webb, district right-of-way agent.

"Correct market value will be the guide by which we acquire needed property," Putzer said. "Our appraisals will be right at the beginning and it will not be the intent of the department to offer a lower price and attempt to negotiate later. We will enter these negotiations as a buyer who wants to buy discussing the property with a seller who wants to sell."

Irrigation District Charges To Get Grand Jury Ear

Charges of misconduct against two La Mesa-Spring Valley-Lemon Grove Irrigation District directors will go to the Grand Jury Complaint Committee within the next few days, Capt. K. McGinnis, USN (retired), told the REVIEW, this week. McGinnis is chairman of the Grand Jury Committee.

The complaint committee, he said, was to make preliminary resolutions which would be referred to the proper Grand Jury committee for further study and this group would make final recommendations to the Superior Court.

Nineteen people, all serving on the Grand Jury for one year, make up the various committees studying complaints of all manners. W. J. Miller, representing the Mountain Valley Taxpayer's Association, last week had charged two members of the Irrigation District with participating in transactions in tax-delinquent property.

Reduced School Tax Follows Budget Adoption

A school district tax reduction of 30c was indicated earlier this week following the approval of the new school budget for the Lemon Grove Elementary School District.

The indicated tax rate would be $1.55 for the coming year as against $1.85 for last year if present estimates are correct, district administrative officials said.

Although the budget has been increased by $150,000 the new apportionment bill, which aids low assessed valuation districts such as Lemon Grove, will lend enough aid to reduce the tax. The tax load will be reduced from $130,000, they said, to $112,000 for a net reduction of $18,000.

While the budget hearing was widely advertised, no private citizens attended the meeting. An exception was three insurance representatives.

The trustees, in adopting a General Fund estimate of income and expenditures it was noted that of $781,971 approximately 78% of this amount will come to the District by State Apportionment which provides increased aid to communities of low assessed valuation such as Lemon Grove.

With increased funds from the state, the Board estimates that local taxes can be reduced approximately 30c on each $100 of assessed valuation, even in the face of a Budget which is increased by $150,000.00. The increased costs are due to the employment of 8 new teachers, 2 additional classified personnel, a salary increase for all teaching personnel approximating $700 per year, a 10% percent salary

Silliman To Speak At Republican Affair

James Silliman, Speaker of the Assembly, California State Legislature, will be the guest speaker at a County-wide Republican picnic, Sunday, August 9th, at Flynn Springs, twelve miles East of El Cajon on Highway 80.

Silliman was elected Speaker of the Assembly in January of this year and will discuss State problems and methods of streamlining operations of the State Legislature. Arrangements for the Republican leader to speak at the gathering were completed by Assemblyman Ralph R. Cloyd.

School Board Meets Monday

The regular monthly school board meeting will be held Monday evening, August 10th at 7:30 at the District Administrative offices on Acacia St. The meeting is open to all interested persons.

DATELINE KOREA. FIVE DAYS BEFORE THE ARMISTICE... "Last night Luke (the Chinese) said the truce talks are off because we won't give up one of our forward observation posts. This came over the loudspeakers... we get one hot meal a day which is plenty in this place... small arms fire isn't so bad but the mortars are terrible. You hear a dull sound as it 'pops' out of the tube. Then you wait about 5 to 8 seconds for a whishing noise. Then you can tell if you should get down or not. But a round that is coming right at you will never be heard in time to get down... Excuse the sloppiness writing out the artillery barrage is shaking the ground so hard it is tough to write steadily."

FEW PERSONS MAY KNOW it, but the recent drive to eliminate commissaries all started here in this county. Spiked by the San Diego Grocers Association, the National Association urged Congress to study the situation. It was this study that resulted in the decision to slice appropriations to the Navy for commissaries.

IF YOU HAVEN'T SEEN IT yet better hurry down to the Navy Relief Carnival. If it even matches last year's effort it will be worth the while. At that time, two of the most popular parts of the Carnival were the S. table (smallest wagger 50c) and a spicy girly show. Back east some Navy personnel were arrested for putting on a relief stag that was a little too gay. In view of this, will our Navy Carnival still be "Bigger and better"?

FRIEND MORGAN AMES OF the Grove theatre may not appreciate this one but we can't pass it on. The Helix movie house frequently runs the name of some person eligible for a free pass in the classified section of one of the La Mesa papers. One of these names appeared in the "Found" section of the classifieds. Much to the surprise of the Helix management, instead of the person named coming in to claim their pair of duets, in came a middle-aged gentleman with two tickets that he found on the street. After seeing the ad, he

Interclub Ball Game May Spill Blood -- If Any

A plea to move the Lion-Kiwanis baseball game to August 16th at 2 p. m. was made by the Kiwanis last week at a Kiwanis luncheon.

Forrest Baxter, business manager of the team, said his players could not get into shape (?) in a shorter period of time.

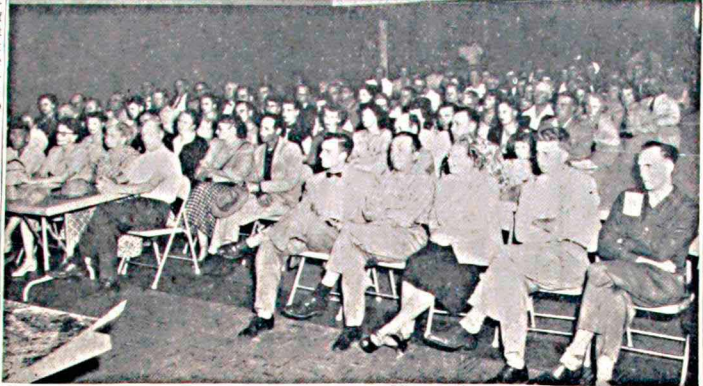

He also asked that the team be permitted to field a 7 man infield and a 8 man outfield to cope with the vaunted Kiwanis team. Meanwhile, with an all preacher infield, the Kiwanis have mustered an all teacher outfield. Clarence Allen, principal of Vista La Mesa School, Byron Netley, school superintendent, Ben Schel, Jr. High School principal, Robert Sutton, San Miguel principal, and Tom Warburton, Helix vice-principal will make the score card. Attorney Luther Hussey will also be in the outfield. Jack Koop, lawyer and Ray Carmody will be catchers taking the hard, fast ball of Max Goodwin, pitcher.

Wright, Sam Solleder, Dick Lyden, Henry Goldy (how did he get in here?) and Bill Nienber will also be used. John Dail and Dr. Si Brumbaugh will be used in the cleanup slot.

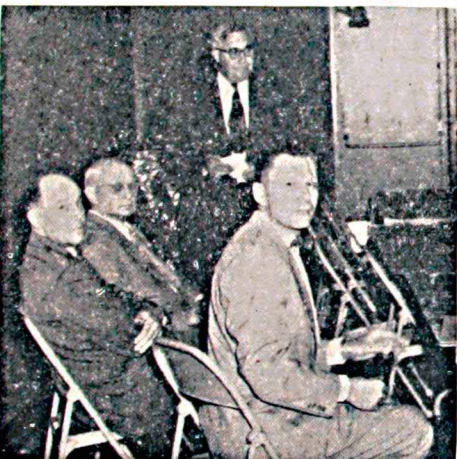

The Lions, according to Baxter, may use their secret weapon, Hank Carr, to pitch. Jack Sanders, Puff Holiday, Bob Johnson and George Kowach will form the infield. Palmer Svalstad, Jim Snodgrass and Jim Pearce will be in the outfield. V. J. Dorman will be used as an auxiliary legal outfielder and legal score keeper.

The game will be Sunday, August 16th at 2 p. m. on the Junior High School playground. Game open to the public and admission is free.

If you haven't been getting top-dressed shoes this last year or so, maybe it's because all the best leather is going into steaks, according to plaster Bob Von Wil-

Here is a part of the large turnout which attended the freeway meeting Friday night at San Miguel School. The group asked all the questions they wanted, got satisfactory answers to some, and left the meeting feeling that the freeway was good for the community and good for them.

County Auto Aid Is High

San Diego County will receive almost $6,000,000 of the $72,000,000 Highway Users Tax Fund which is being distributed to cities and counties of California and to the State Highway fund for the quarter ending June 30.

Counties from the entire state will receive fourteen and a half million dollars while cities will receive about $6,000,000 and the state highway fund will receive a total of $52,000,000.

The nearly $600,000 is for the construction and maintenance of the county road system, according to Robert C. Kirkwood, state controller. Sources of revenue for the three months period for the entire state were: gasoline tax $40,000,000, diesel tax $2,000,000, transfer from motor vehicle fund $27,000,000, transfer from motor vehicle transportation tax fund $2,750,000 and miscellaneous $2,500.

Certainly, Comrade Stalin, Adam and Eve were Russian agrees Rev. Dan Apra. They had no house, no clothes, nothing but apples to eat. And they thought they were in paradise, he says.

La Jolla Handicap At Del Mar

Lemon Grovans will see mighty Calumet Farm against the field Saturday at Del Mar as the $10,000 added La Jolla Handicap brings together the seaside track's best 3-year-olds in the feature of a nine-race program.

Chanlea, winner of the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby already this year, and Right Bright were named by Calumet for the one-mile La Jolla and either one looks as the horse to beat. Right Bright was a fast-closing third to Fortune Teller in the six-furlong Oceanside Handicap on opening day, while Chanlea will be making his first local appearance since finishing second to Hour Regards in the rich 1952 Del Mar Futurity.

Arrayed against that pair are 13 other fast 3-year-olds, all potential threats for the Del Mar Derby later in the meeting. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. John Eyraud's Karim, second finisher in the Oceanside, and the Martek Stable's History Book, a winner at the meeting.

Any entertainer for whom the M. C. has to plead "Let's give him a great big hand," usually doesn't deserve it, according to Jerry Dougherty, L. G. Review composing room foreman and playwright.

Annexation Preferred By Civic Association

A meeting of the Greater Lemon Grove Civic Association was held Monday night, at which time a final report was made by the special committee formed to gather further information on the issues confronting Lemon Grove. The final report brought out very complete information of two phases of the issue; one exceptionally complete report on annexation to San Diego and the other on remaining as we are now.

As a result of studies and reports, the Executive Committee of the Association at a meeting held earlier decided to recommend that an attempt be made to interest more people of the community and to urge cooperation in attaining the most desirable goal. The Executive Committee recommended that annexation would probably be most desirable but that the lack of interest of the majority of the people indicated that this does not seem to be the proper time for a decisive move.

Free Lemonade Every Saturday

Free lemonade will be dispensed every Saturday throughout the summer months it was decided by the Grove Chamber of Commerce earlier this week.

A huge barrel of the refreshing, ice cold substance will be served starting at noon. Cost of the project is being underwritten by the chamber and individual business firms.

Everybody, and the children especially, are invited to take advantage of the offer.

It's Cold! It's Tasty! It's Free Lemonade!

Nearly 4,000 cups of lemonade went to hot and thirsty visitors to the Lemon Grove shopping area Saturday.

As a project of the Chamber of Commerce it will be held on a regular schedule as compliments of Lemon Grove business firms. Members of the Business Women's League served as lemonade dispensers during the six hours long distribution and members of the Fire Department contributed off duty time to clean the area.

Ed Lewis Heads For Salmon Country

Ed Lewis of the Lemon Grove
Paint and Wallpaper Store is going fishing again.

This time he expects to have a considerably larger group with him than he had last year when he bet the editor of the REVIEW that he would catch three salmon or more.

With him will be his wife, Alma, and four grandchildren, Eleanor and Eddie Paden and Marshall and Cathy Hagan.

The group will tour through northern California and into Oregon for their fishing expedition.

Although Lewis is going about the community making bets on his prowess as a fisherman, he stands to lose nothing unless he pay off better than he did after last year's fishing jaunt.

The group leaves Friday.

Red Cross Blood Program This Month

Local Red Cross Blood collection program will be terminated August 31st, it was announced this week by the Office of Defense Mobilization.

The Red Cross has been collecting Lemon Grove blood for the National Blood Program for war uses and blood derivatives requirements.

However 1,000 pints of blood for defense are needed before the contract closing date and eleven mobile operations have been scheduled for August.

Dr. Frederick G. Hollander, president of the San Diego Blood Bank and Donald E. Hanson, San Diego Chapter Red Cross chairman reported that cooperation of their organizations will continue to keep the local Red Cross prepared on a standby basis to meet emergency defense and civilian blood requirements. Paint Remover Works Like Magic

In these days of high costs, Mrs. Homemaker turns to practical ways and means to give her home furnishings new life. Worn and weary furniture can be rejuvenated—but this has always been a terrific job. Now, thanks to recent chemical discoveries, furniture that hides clean wood and good design beneath layers of marred paint or varnish shed the old faces and take on a new look—all in scant time.

The secret of the new-type paint removers is the chemical methylene chloride. Formulas which contain this product were developed during World War II, but, because of their quick-action value, were all scooped up by the military, and only now have become available for widespread civilian use. Unlike older type paint removers which merely dissolve the coating, methylene chloride actually "lifts" from the surface any number of coats. The layers then peel before easy strokes of a putty knife like pancakes from a griddle. In a matter of minutes, the smooth grain of the wood is laid bare.

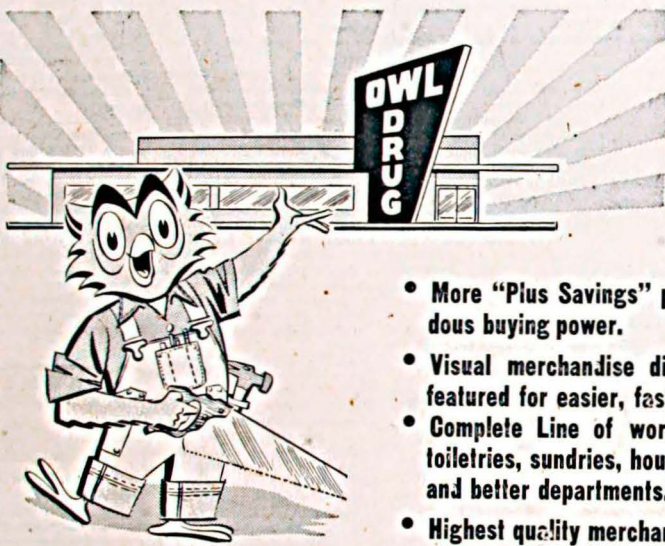

Only three simple steps are required with methylene chloride formulas: (1) With an old paint brush, spread the formula thickly on the article; (2) Allow ten minutes or so for the paint to crinkle; (3) Peel off dead paint with light strokes of a putty knife. For remaining traces, a quick once-over with steel wool dipped in the solution adds the final vanishing touch. A fresh coat of paint or varnish can be applied immediately. Paint and hardware stores sell methylene chloride removers under various brand names. Ask for one containing this chemical. Because they are identified as "nonflammable," they are easy to recognize.

California's First
Mission in Ruins... 1870

Early in 1774, padres were cultivating the orchards and gardens surrounding Mission San Diego de Alcalá in Mission Valley. This was the first Christian outpost in California and the second home for the mission, since the first location on Presidio Hill had proved impractical.

This 1870 photograph from the historical collection of Union Title Insurance and Trust Company shows the crumbling ruins of the mission almost 100 years later.

In 1846, missions throughout the state were confiscated by Pío Pico, Mexican governor of California, and placed in the hands of hired administrators. During the succeeding years, the missions deteriorated badly. San Diego's mission was used to house soldiers; the fine orchards were cut down for firewood.

In 1862, President Abraham Lincoln signed an executive order returning the missions to the church, and as early as 1891 sporadic efforts were made to restore the buildings. Not until Albert V. Mayrhofer, former president of the San Diego Historical Society, launched his enthusiastic campaign decades later, was this accomplished. During 1930-1931 the old church was rebuilt and restored following the foundation lines of the original structure.

The picturesque and historic building now serves as a parish church, and houses some of California's most historic documents—original records of Father Junipero Serra. Each year it draws thousands of interested visitors.

Potency Of Spirit

Told In Sunday Sermon

The practical force of spirituality in all details of human life as contrasted with the thought of spirituality as an abstraction is the keynote of the Lesson-Sermon on "Spirit" in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday.

The Golden Text is from Paul's

(2:12): "Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God."

William L. Gregg, 82 of 7572 Central Ave., retired architectural draftsman and a San Diego resident since 1913, died Monday in a hospital. He was a former civil service employee. Mr. Gregg was a member of the Modern Woodmen, Royal Neighbors and the Retired Civil Service Employees' Association. Ninety New Homes For L. G.

Ginger Jellied Salads Are Tempting

Springtime is salad time. From now on, through the warm weather months, it will take light food, attractive in appearance, to tempt the appetites of your family. Sparkling molded salads have eye-appeal, so stimulating to jaded appetites. When pale dry ginger ale is used as the liquid in which to dissolve the gelatin, salads have an extra sparkle and extremely refreshing flavor. These salads can be served often without becoming monotonous since there are many combinations of fruits and vegetables that may be used. Here is one, using tuna fish as its main ingredient, that is delicious. If apples are not available, you might substitute drained

Don Tinsley of El Monte, California will soon be the owner of a new home in Conrad Terrace if his pleased smile is any indication of his thoughts.

He is shown here talking to Martin L. Gleich, one of the developers of the project which opened last week.

There are to be 93 homes in Conrad Terrace all in the $12,000 class with down payments as low as $2,200 on F.H.A. terms, according to Gleich.

These homes are described as luxury style type but within the reach of the average pocketbook.

Three model homes are currently open each day and all residents of Lemon Grove are invited to come in and browse through them.

Park Rangers To Be Selected

State park rangers to help handle the 42,000,000 persons who visit California's state parks and beaches each year will be selected in a civil service examination September 19, the State Personnel Board said today. Applications must be in by August 29.

The job pays $268 to start with a raise in six months and further increases to $325. Requirements are two years' experience in construction or building repair, or in park or forestry work.

An examination also is scheduled for state park naturalist, paying $395 to $481, with an application deadline of October 2.

Prize Winning Home From Small Homes Guide Is Easy On The Family's Budget

Because the simple lines of this home designed by Architect Erwin H. James make it acceptable to the family that must keep the budget in mind, it was chosen as the prize winning design in the current edition of Small Homes Guide.

Space was allotted jealously when the rooms were laid out, without a square inch wasted. There is almost no hall space; the main bathroom and the powder room off the master bedroom are compactly fitted in; a small area is cut off from the dining-living room to serve as an entry without space taken for a special vestibule; the kitchen is the space saving L-shape.

The den can have a multiple function, serving as nursery and play space for children while Mother is at work in the kitchen; serving to carry traffic that might otherwise flow through the living room; serving its planned purpose as den or home office, or it can be a dining room. The total area is 1,310 sq. ft. Information on blueprints and their cost can be obtained by writing to Small Homes Guide, Dept. 1202, 82 W. Washington, Chicago 2, Ill.

TRULY A CONTENTED CALF — NATURALLY — Who or what wouldn't be? Nestled in the arms of State Fair lovely, Jeanne Standing, the purebred Hereford calf presents a picture of pure satisfaction. The calf will soon be exhibited in the livestock exposition at the California State Fair in Sacramento, September 1 through 13. The multi-million dollar livestock industry will play a large part in portraying "California's Magic," theme of this year's State Fair.

of the discussion centered around the various Capital Outlay funds, namely, the local Bond fund which is deposited in the San Diego County Treasury and is referred to as the Building Fund. This resource has been used toward the completion of the current construction program which has been financed jointly by State and Federal Funds in addition to our local contribution. The Board stated that the District has housing for 2,073 children and estimates the need for accommodating approximately 2,800 by the fall of 1955. An application is currently being processed to provide the badly needed additional classrooms, the financing of which can be realized on a priority basis in the new State of California building program provided the local district is willing to bond itself to within 5% of its assessed valuation.

thought the Helix had to have their tickets back. After all, honesty is the best policy.

NOW WE KNEW TEXANS were well off, but . . . A friend of ours at one of the drive-ins claims that one night when a 3 dimensional picture was being filmed, and he was working at the ticket gate, a big sedan with lone star plates drove up and refused to accept the 3-D viewing glasses. "Don't need 'em," claimed the man, "I had my windshield made out of polaroid glass specially for drive-in movies." And speaking of 3-D movies, how about the woman that came out of one and told her friend that she couldn't see anything so wonderful in third dimension. "Gosh, they just look like real people; doesn't even look like a film."

Woman's Club Sorry to Accept Resignation of Mrs. Bowers

(By Mrs. Fred Scherema)

The patio of Mrs. Frank Eldridge, Recording Secretary of the Lemon Grove Woman's Club, was the scene of a special board meeting of officers and directors last week to approve the 1953-54 program presented by Mrs. Howard L. Bowers, Vice President and Program Chairman.

Regret was evidenced on each face as Mrs. Bowers, under whose capable leadership as Ways and Means Chairman last year extensive improvements to the clubhouse were made among other noteworthy achievements, submitted her resignation.

Mrs. Paul Harvey will succeed her and members will be informed of the Bowers' Arizona address at a later date.

A Silver tea in conjunction with an effort to increase membership was planned for August 18th at 3:00 p. m. in the clubhouse. Those wishing to affiliate with the club are extended an invitation, as are past and present members. Additional information may be obtained by calling Mrs. H. J. Warner at Homeland 6-9164.

At the conclusion refreshments were served by Mrs. Eldridge who has as a house guest her infant granddaughter, whose presence was not overlooked by the following attending officers: Mrs. David Hentigan, President; Mrs. H. E. Havens, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Charles Furer, Treasurer; Mrs. Hal Crow, Parliamentarian; Mrs. Charles W. Brown, Past President; Mrs. Ralph Richardson, House Chairman; Mrs. H. J. Warner, Ways and Means, and Mrs. James Martin, President of the Juniors.

Chemists Wanted For State War On Dope Traffic

The state needs narcotic chemist inspectors in its war on the illicit drug trade, the State Personnel Board said today.

A civil service exam with an application deadline of August 28 has been set for the job, which pays $436 to $530 a month. Applicants must be expert analytical chemists interested in law enforcement work.

Another state anti-crime job open for application up to August 21 is intermediate fingerprint technician. It pays $268 to $325 a month.

A Hobby Show filling six large buildings will be displayed to visitors at the 1953 Orange County Fair, Aug. 11-16, near Santa Ana.

salesman's pitch of a few years back when every car on the lot "was driven by an old lady in Pasadena" the C. P. Appliance Co. with a subtle touch of humor have a sign on a used television set in their shop reading "Used only by an old lady with weak eyes."
